

Est 1998

FAIRBANKS HISTORY DAY

YOU HAVE A PLACE IN HISTORY.

Fairbanks History Day is a local exhibition and competition to promote the study and appreciation of history. The competition is open to any student in grades K through 12 who wish to submit projects in one of five categories: paper, exhibit, performance, documentary, and website. The top 3 projects in each category will advance to the state competition. Alaska History Day winners then advance to the National History Day competition in College Park, Maryland. For more information about the competition, including this year's theme, please visit www.fairbankshistoryday.org.

IN AN EFFORT TO MITIGATE THE IMPACT OF THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC, THE 2022 CONTEST WILL BE A VIRTUAL COMPETITION.

2022 Competition Schedule

January 31 Registration Opens online at www.fairbankshistoryday.org

The following is required for contest entry:

URL for documentary & performance categories

Website link for websites category

PDF for research papers e-mailed to info@fairbankshistoryday.org

New this year: 4 images of project display for exhibit category emailed to info@fairbankshistoryday.org

A process paper is required with each submission in all categories except paper.

February 11 Registration Deadline. No late entries will be accepted after 5pm.

February 14 Contest begins. Virtual Judges training to take place at 6pm.
(Zoom link for training will be posted to competition website one week prior).

February 16 Judging Ends. All score sheets due to contest staff by 5pm.

February 18 Fairbanks History Day Award Winners Announced Online at Noon AKST

The projects of the top 3 award winners in each category and division will be posted online on February 18, 2022. These award winners are eligible to compete at the Alaska State History Day competition. Top finishers in the state competition will advance to the National History Day competition, June 12-16, 2022 in College Park, Maryland.

Fairbanks History Day | Established 1998

Funded by the UAF Department of History & The Arthur T. Fathauer Endowment Fund
www.fairbankshistoryday.org | info@fairbankshistoryday.org |