This contest guide contains information specifically for teachers and students participating in the Alaska History Day State Contest 2022. The contest is entirely online, so please read these instructions carefully as they cover different processes than the National History Day (NHD) contest rules.

Introduction

Alaska History Day (AHD) is Alaska's affiliate of NHD, a national non-profit organization dedicated to improving the teaching and learning of history. AHD was established in 1989 and has been coordinated at the state level by the Alaska Humanities Forum since 2017. AHD is also supported by the Alaska State Libraries, Museums and Archives.

Contest Divisions and Categories

Each category in each division is judged separately. Groups may include between two and five students. There are two divisions organized by school grade:

- Junior Division: grades 6, 7, 8
- Senior Division: grades 9, 10, 11, 12

Students may make a project in any of the nine categories:

- Paper (Individual only)
- Individual exhibit
- Group exhibit
- Individual performance
- Group performance
- Individual documentary
- Group documentary
- Individual website
- Group website

More information on each category: <https://www.nhd.org/categories>

Regional Contests: If there is an AHD contest in a student's home community, that student must compete in a local/regional contest before they can advance to state. The coordinator of the local/regional contest will submit the names of winners to the state coordinator. Maximum three students from each category and division (IE, Sr. Individual Documentary) may be deemed eligible to advance to the state contest.

If there is not a local contest in a student's area, teachers can submit their top students' entries directly to the state contest. In this case, the top two entries from each category may be selected by the teacher.

Registration Procedure

Registration for the 2021 state contest runs from Tuesday, March 1st @ 8 AM -Monday, March 21st, 2022 @ 5 PM. Registration is done via an online registration system hosted by NHD. (<https://ak.nhd.org>) There is no registration fee for the Alaska History Day contest.

As a part of the registration process students must provide a link or upload their projects (including title pages, process papers, and annotated bibliographies) to the registration system.

Registration Instructions for Teachers

- You must register before your students. Please note that in this system, users need to be able to accept emails from zfacts.com. If you use your school email address, you may need to check with your IT department to make sure these emails are not getting blocked. You may also choose to use a personal email address to register.
- Go to <https://ak.nhd.org>, click on "Create Account" in the top left corner, and select your role (teacher).
- Complete the personal contact info page.
- Choose your school(s) from the list.
- Agree to NHD permissions.

- Continue to the completion page. Note your login/password for future use. You will then receive a confirmation email from zfacts.com that your registration is complete.
- To view or edit your students' information, log in and click on the "My Students" tab at the top of the page. This will take you to a list of all students who are linked to you in the system. If you click on a student, you can choose to view or edit their information, or link/unlink them to a project.

Registration Instructions for Students

- Once your teacher has created their account, go to <https://ak.nhd.org>, click on "Create Account" in the top left corner, and select your role (student).

You will receive a "team key" number code for your group project. Please give this "team key" to the other members of your group as they will need it to register as a member of the group.
 - o Group projects (students registering after the first person): Fill out the first page of personal information, continue to the next page, and select "Link/Join Existing Team Project."
- Enter your school, teacher, and grade info.
- Continue to the NHD permissions page.

In the case that a first- or second-place winner is unable to attend, the third-place winner may be invited in their place. The national contest will take place the week of June 13th.
